§1306. Preparation and distribution of absentee by mail and early voting ballots

A.(1) The secretary of state shall prepare absentee by mail and early voting ballots. The size and weight of paper, size and type of print, and other matters pertaining to absentee by mail and early voting ballots shall be determined by the secretary of state, subject to approval as to content by the attorney general. All ballots and paraphernalia of the same kind shall be identical as to size and weight of paper, size, type, and color of print, and other matters, except for ballots transmitted electronically to members of the United States Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, and to persons residing outside the United States.

(4) The secretary of state shall prepare a special absentee ballot for candidates and constitutional amendments to be voted on in second party primary or general elections, subject to approval as to content by the attorney general. This special ballot shall only be for use by a qualified voter who is either a member of the United States Service or who resides outside of the United States. Such special ballot shall contain a list of the titles of all offices being contested at the primary or first party primary election and the candidates qualifying for the primary or first party primary election for each office, and shall permit the elector to vote in the second party primary or general election by indicating his order of preference for each candidate for each office. On the special ballot shall also be printed each constitutional amendment to be voted on in the second party primary or general election. To indicate his order of preference for each candidate for each office to be voted on in the election, the voter shall put the number one next to the name of the candidate who is the voter's first choice, the number two for his second choice and so forth so that, in consecutive numerical order, a number indicating the voter's preference is written by the voter next to each candidate's name on the ballot. A space shall be provided for the voter to indicate his preference for or against each constitutional amendment contained on the ballot. The voter shall not be required to indicate his preference for more than one candidate on the ballot if the voter so chooses. The secretary of state shall also prepare instructions for use of the special ballot, including instructions for voting by mail using an electronically transmitted ballot.

B.(1) The secretary of state shall prepare absentee by mail and early voting ballot envelopes, early voting applications, absentee by mail and early voting

1 instructions, certificates, and other absentee by mail and early voting balloting
2 paraphernalia consistent with the provisions of this Chapter, subject to approval of 3 the attorney general as to content. Notwithstanding the provisions of R.S. 18:1316 4 relating to distinguishing marks on absentee by mail and early voting ballots, 5 absentee by mail voting instructions on absentee by mail ballots to be transmitted by 6 facsimile in accordance with R.S. 18:1308(A)(1)(b) shall stipulate that the voter may 7 mark his ballot with a cross [X] mark or a check [T] mark as provided in Items
8 (A)(2)(a)(i) and (ii) of this Section. When a court of competent jurisdiction, a 9 registrar of voters, the secretary of state, or other competent authority determines that 10 there exists a literate linguistic minority equal to more than five percent of the total 11 population of any parish, the secretary of state, with approval of the attorney general 12 as to content, shall prepare and furnish absentee by mail and early voting ballots, 13 absentee by mail and early voting instructions, and certificates in the minority 14 language in sufficient quantity to provide to each absentee by mail and early voter 15 requesting voting material in that language.

17 §1308. Absentee voting by mail

18 A.

19 * * *

20 (2)(a) With respect to ~~persons~~ registered voters on active duty in the United 21 States military service or outside the continental boundaries of the United States, 22 these materials shall be mailed as provided by the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens
23 Absentee Voting Act (39 U.S.C. 3406 and 42 U.S.C. 1973ff et seq.) and shall include 24 both the primary or first party primary election ballot and the special ballots for the 25 general election or the second party primary election and the general election.

26 (b) Notwithstanding the provision of Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph, 27 with respect to registered voters on active duty in the United States military service 28 or outside the continental boundaries of the United States, these materials may be 29 electronically transmitted for a federal general election and must include the special 30 ballot or ballots as provided in R.S. 18:1306(A)(4) for the federal general election.

1 (c) ~~The~~ For mailed ballots, the envelope mailed to the voter shall contain six 2 envelopes, three of which shall be the ballot envelopes and three of which shall be 3 return envelopes. Each return envelope shall bear the official title and mailing 4 address of the registrar, whether it contains a primary, first party primary, second 5 party primary or general election ballot, and the name, return address, and precinct
6 or district number of the voter. The voter shall return his voted primary or first party 7 primary election ballot and special ballots for the general election or the second party 8 primary and the general election to the registrar in the appropriate envelopes. The 9 registrar of voters shall not mail a regular general election or the second party
10 primary and general election absentee ballot to a member of the United States 11 Service or to persons residing overseas if the registrar has mailed a special ballot, as 12 provided herein, to such voter. The envelopes for the special ballots shall contain 13 language on the outside of the envelope ~~which will~~ that clearly ~~designate~~ designates 14 which envelope is to be used for return of the second primary election ballot and 15 which envelope is to be used for return of the general election ballot.

16 (d)(i) For each electronically transmitted federal general election ballot, the 17 registrar shall transmit the ballot, certificate, and waiver of the right to a secret ballot
18 to the voter. The waiver of the right to a secret ballot shall contain the following 19 statement: "My ballot was transmitted electronically to me and I am voluntarily 20 waiving my right to a secret ballot." The statement shall also contain a space for the 21 voter's handwritten signature, the date, and the voter's social security number. The 22 voter shall return by mail his voted ballot, completed certificate, and signed waiver
23 of the right to a secret ballot. The registrar and his staff shall take the steps 24 necessary to keep each voted ballot that was transmitted electronically as 25 confidential as practicable.

26 (ii) The voter may use the "Security Envelope" and ballot transmittal 27 envelope from the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot to mail the electronically 28 transmitted federal general election ballot or ballots and certificate to the parish 29 registrar of voters.

(b) (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subparagraph Subparagraphs (A)(2)(a), (b), and (c) of this Section, Paragraph, if the a voter who is on active duty in the United States military service or residing outside the United States continental boundaries and who feels he will not have time to vote timely by mail, ~~the voter~~ may request that the registrar transmit to him by facsimile a ballot, including the ~~affidavit~~ certificate, or a second ballot, as the case may be, and the registrar shall do so ~~if a facsimile machine is available for his use~~. The voter may then either mail or transmit by facsimile his voted ballot, ~~including the affidavit, and certificate~~ back to the registrar at the facsimile machine number designated by the registrar. If the voter chooses to transmit his voted ballot to the registrar by facsimile, the documents to be transmitted shall contain the following statement: "I understand that by faxing my voted ballot I am voluntarily waiving my right to a secret ballot." This statement shall be followed by the voter's handwritten signature, date, and social security number. Upon receipt of the transmittal, the registrar shall place the voted ballot along with the signed statement and ~~affidavit~~ certificate in an appropriately marked envelope and seal it. The registrar and his staff shall take the steps necessary to keep the voted ballots received by facsimile as confidential as practicable.

(f) The secretary of state as the chief election officer of the state shall take all actions reasonably necessary to allow persons residing outside the continental boundaries and persons on active duty in the armed forces to vote according to the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act or otherwise during a period of declared emergency, whether by mail, facsimile, or other means of transmission of the ballot, notwithstanding any provision of this Code to the contrary.

§1308.2. Voting absentee by mail for presidential candidates and congressional candidates

A.(1) At least forty-five days before each presidential election, the secretary of state shall deliver to each registrar a sufficient quantity of absentee by mail ballots, envelopes, certificates, and instructions to be used only by members of the

1 United States ~~service~~ Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, and persons residing 2 outside the United States who are registered to vote pursuant to R.S. 18:103(C), for 3 the election of the president of the United States, including ballots, certificates, and 4 instructions to be electronically transmitted to the voters. The absentee by mail 5 ballot shall be prepared according to law and shall contain only presidential 6 candidates. The absentee by mail ballot envelope shall be marked "Presidential 7 Ballot Only".

8 (2) At least forty-five days before each congressional general election, the 9 secretary of state shall deliver to each registrar a sufficient quantity of special 10 absentee by mail ballots as provided in R.S. 18:1306(A)(4), envelopes, certificates, 11 and instructions to be used only by members of the United States Service, as defined 12 in R.S. 18:1302, and persons residing outside the United States who are registered 13 to vote pursuant to R.S. 18:103(C), for the election of the members of congress, 14 including special ballots, certificates, and instructions to be electronically transmitted 15 to the voters.

16 B. Voting absentee by mail for presidential and congressional candidates as 17 provided in Subsection A hereof shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this 18 Chapter governing absentee by mail voting generally.

20 §1310. Execution of certificate; marking of ballot; casting vote; assistance

21 A.(1) When a voter receives the absentee voting materials by mail, he first 22 shall fill in all blanks on the certificate on the ballot envelope flap. The voter then 23 shall mark the ballot according to the printed instructions on its face. Then the voter 24 shall place the voted ballot in the envelope, seal the envelope, and sign the certificate 25 on the ballot envelope flap.

26 (2) When a member of the United States Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, 27 or a person residing outside the United States who is registered to vote receives the 28 absentee voting materials by electronic transmission, he first shall print all 29 documents and fill in all blanks on the certificate and the waiver of the right to a 30 secret ballot. The voter then shall mark the ballot or ballots according to the printed

1 instructions on its face. The voter shall then place the voted ballot or ballots, 2 completed certificate, and waiver of the right to a secret ballot in an envelope, seal 3 the envelope, mark "Absentee Ballot Enclosed" on the envelope, and mail the 4 envelope and its contents to the registrar of voters.

6 §1313. Tabulation and counting of absentee by mail and early voting ballots

7 * * *

8 F. The procedure for counting absentee by mail or early voting ballots shall 9 be as follows:

10 (1) A member of the board shall remove the certificates and special absentee 11 by mail ballots, envelopes containing the absentee by mail and early voting ballots 12 and early voting applications from the special absentee by mail and early voting 13 ballot envelope.

14 (2) The board shall announce the name of each absentee by mail or early 15 voting voter and the ward and precinct where he is registered to vote, and shall 16 compare the name on the certificate, early voting application, or on the flap of the 17 envelope containing the absentee by mail or early voting ballot with the names on 18 the list of absentee by mail or early voting voters and on the supplemental list.

19 * * *

20 (5) If a majority of the members of the board determine that an absentee by 21 mail or early voting ballot is invalid, the members shall leave the flap on the 22 envelope containing the absentee by mail or early voting ballot, leave the envelope 23 sealed, and shall write the word "rejected", together with the reasons for rejecting the 24 ballot, across the envelope containing the ballot ~~or~~, across the early voting 25 application, or across the certificate attached to the special absentee by mail ballot.
 26 The rejected absentee by mail and early voting ballots ~~and~~, early voting applications, 27 and certificates shall be replaced in the special absentee by mail and early voting 28 ballot envelope. No rejected absentee by mail or early voting ballot shall be counted.

29 (6) After the validity of all absentee by mail and early voting ballots has 30 been determined, the members of the board shall place the valid early voting

1 applications, ~~certificates~~, and the flaps removed from the valid absentee by mail and 2 early voting ballots in the envelope provided for that purpose and seal the envelope.
 3 Two of the members shall execute the certificate on the envelope.

4 * * *

5 (8) The board shall, in accordance with the requirements of R.S. 18:1316, 6 reject any ballot which contains a distinguishing mark or feature making the ballot 7 susceptible of identification. However, a ballot shall not be rejected as containing 8 a distinguishing mark if the ballot was transmitted electronically to a member of the 9 United States Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, or a person residing outside the 10 United States.

11 * * *

12 §1316. Rejection of ballot having distinguishing marks

13 * * *

14 C. A ballot transmitted electronically to a member of the United States
 15 Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, or a person residing outside the United States 16 shall not be considered as having distinguishing marks.

17 Section 2. R.S. 18:1319 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

18 §1319. Use of Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot; presidential and congressional 19 elections

20 A member of the United States Service, as defined in R.S. 18:1302, or a 21 person residing outside the United States who made a timely application to vote 22 absentee by mail as provided in R.S. 18:1307(C) and who did not receive absentee 23 by mail ballots may use the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot to vote in presidential 24 elections and congressional elections. The Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot shall 25 be submitted, processed, and counted in the manner provided in this Chapter.

26 Section 3.(A) This Section and Section 1 of this Act shall become effective upon 27 signature of this Act by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of 28 the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article 29 III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If this Act is vetoed by the governor and

1 subsequently approved by the legislature, this Section and Section 1 of this Act shall become 2 effective on the day following such approval.

3 (B) Section 2 of this Act shall become effective December 31, 2010.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
